

America's Foremost Speaker on the Power of FOCUS

“ Whatever you greatly believe and act on, with directed focus, will come to you. ”

Freddie Bell, motivational speaker

Freddie Bell is a sought after speaker/broadcaster who is passionate about empowering audiences to succeed in all areas of their lives. His keynotes, workshops, seminars are practical, informative, engaging and action packed. Understanding that one small change or step can produce far-reaching results, he motivates and inspires participants to discover their own Power of Focus that can lead to action and greater success in their personal and professional lives.

Freddie knows about bouncing back from setbacks and shares the lessons learned from harnessing the Power of Focus. He talks about surviving the fall of the Enron Energy Company; Living with ulcerative colitis and even overcoming the devastation of being replaced by a recording after having hosted a live Morning radio show.

Freddie brings extensive experience to his presentations. As a veteran broadcaster, Freddie is currently the Radio Host of three radio programs; The KMOJ Morning Show, New Beginnings (a one-hour talk show for and about Baby Boomers) and the nationally syndicated Freddie Bell Radio Show featuring music from the 70s, 80s and more!

His viewpoints are honed from working with and interviewing Life Leaders like the late Poet Laureate May Angelou; Congressman Keith Ellison, Civil Rights Activist Mylie Evers-Williams and Julian Bond; Heroes including Guy Buford, the first African-American Astronaut; Former US Presidents, including Jimmy Carter and presidential candidate Lenora Fulani.

Freddie has shared the stage with Oscar and Grammy Award Winners including Jamie Foxx, Aretha Franklin, Dionne Warwick, BB King, Helen Reddy, Lionel Ritchie, CEO's, Judges, Congressmen and a host of other thought leaders and authors.

As a Speaker and Communicator, Freddie Bell was a journalist with an ABC News affiliate, Communications Executive for Enron Energy Company and Mutual of Omaha; an Award Winning Sales professional and Manager/Morning Show Host of CBS Radio's Solid Gold Soul.

“Freddie uses words much like an artist uses paints. With words he creates a picture which inspires, entertains, informs, lifts the spirit and connects heart to heart. If you want a speakers who will motivate and connect with his audience in a dynamic and unique way, just invite Freddie Bell to speak. His words of truth will linger in your heart and mind long after he's left your presence.”

Ruth Fatur, Tampa Bay area

“I have worked with many speakers over the past several decades and Freddie Bell stands out. I was impressed that Freddie put in the time and effort above what was expected of a speaker to work out the best way to present.”
